Peer-Reviewed Publications

1. Shlafer, R., +Duwe, G., & *Hindt, L. (In press). Incarcerated parents and their minor children: State and national comparisons. The Prison Journal. Accepted December 2017.
Contribution: As the first author on this paper, I was the guarantor of the integrity of the entire study. I conceptualized the study, led data collection, oversaw data entry and analysis, and led the preparation of the manuscript.
2. Shlafer, R., *Davis, L., *Hindt, L., Goshin, L., & +Gerrity, E. (In press). Intention and initiation of breastfeeding among incarcerated women: Implications for nursing practice. Nursing for Women's Health. Accepted September 2017.
Contribution: As the Research Director for the Minnesota Prison Doula Project, I oversee all research and evaluation activities. I am responsible for the design of this study, data collection and management. I conceptualized the paper and mentored post-doctoral fellow (L. Davis) on data analysis. I led the preparation of the manuscript and submitted the manuscript as the corresponding author.
3. *Rosenboom, L., Harnack, L., Stang, J. & Shlafer, R. (In press). Evaluation of the nutritional quality of commissary foods offered within American women's prisons. Journal of Correctional Health Care. Accepted September 2017.
Contribution: I served on L. Rosenboom's MPH committee. I provided content expertise around the health of incarcerated women. I provided access to some of the data used in the manuscript. I made substantial edits to each revision of the manuscript.
4. Forster, M., *Davis, L., Shlafer, R., Unger, J. B. (Accepted). Household incarceration and salient emerging adult role transitions: Findings from an urban sample of Hispanic youth. Emerging Adulthood. Accepted December 2017.
Contribution: I assisted with the conceptualization of the analysis in this paper. I contributed significant sections to the background and literature review, and reviewed the manuscript in its entirety.
5. Shlafer, R., *Reedy, T., & *Davis, L. (2017). School-based outcomes among youth with incarcerated parents: Differences by school setting. Journal of School Health, 87(9), 687-695. PMID: 28766316
Contribution: As the first author on this paper, I was the guarantor of integrity of the entire study. I requested the data from the Minnesota Department of Education and applied for an exemption for human subjects review from the Institutional Review Board. I mentored T. Reedy (a graduate student) through the literature research and statistical analyses. I led the preparation of the manuscript and submitted the manuscript as the corresponding author.

6. Shlafer, R., Stang, J., Dallaire, D., Forestell, C. A., & Hellerstedt, W. (2017). Best practices for nutrition care of pregnant women in prison. Journal of Correctional Health Care, 23(3), 297-304. PMID: 28656820
Contribution: I conceptualized this paper and drafted the entire paper. I coordinated contributions from co-authors and was responsible for incorporating all revisions. I served as the corresponding author.
7. *Davis, L. & Shlafer, R. (2017). Substance use among youth with currently and formerly incarcerated parents. Smith College Studies in Social Work, 87(1), 43-58.
Contribution: Dr. Davis and I conceptualized the paper and the research questions. I provided support for data analysis and interpretation. We co-wrote the manuscript.
8. *Davis, L., & Shlafer, R. (2017). Mental health of adolescents with currently and formerly incarcerated parents. Journal of Adolescence, 54, 120-134. PMID: 28011442
Contribution: As K. Davis' research mentor, I provided guidance and support throughout the analysis and writing of this manuscript. I helped identify target journals for submission and provided substantive revisions on all drafts of the manuscript.
9. Goshin, L. S., Arditti, J. A., Dallaire, D. H., Shlafer, R. J., & *Hollihan, A. (2017). An international human rights perspective on maternal criminal justice involvement in the United States. Psychology, Public Policy, and Law, 23(1), 53-67.
Impact Factor: 1.986, DOI: <http://dx.doi.org/10.1037/law0000101>, Contribution: As a co-author on this paper, I provided feedback throughout the collaborative writing process. I was responsible for authoring a section of this paper and providing substantive revisions to all drafts of the manuscript.
10. Sieving, R. E., McRee, A. L., McMorris, B. J., Shlafer, R. J., Gower, A. L., *Kapa, H. M., Beckman, K. J., *Doty, J. L., Plowman, S. L., Resnick M. D. (2017). Youth-adult connectedness: A key protective factor for adolescent health. American Journal of Preventive Medicine, 52(3), S275-S278. PMID: 28215380
Impact Factor: 4.465, DOI: <http://dx.doi.org/10.1016/j.amepre.2016.07.037>, Contribution: I co-wrote the introduction with Dr. Resnick. I created the online appendix and provided reviews of previous versions of the manuscript.
11. Shlafer, R., *Wanous, A., & *Schubert, E. (2017). Statewide dissemination of Sesame Street resources for families affected by incarceration. Health Promotion Practice, 18(2), 298-305. PMID: 27216876
DOI: 10.1177/1524839916648126, Contribution: As the first author on this paper, I was the guarantor of the integrity of the entire paper and the larger project (i.e., leading the dissemination of the resources). I mentored A. Wanous (undergraduate student) and E. Casey (graduate student) throughout the preparation of this manuscript. I led the preparation of the manuscript, provided feedback on others' sections of the manuscript, and submitted the manuscript as the corresponding author.
12. *Hindt, L. A., *Davis, L., *Schubert, E. C., Poehlmann-Tynan, J., & Shlafer, R. (2016). Comparing emotion recognition skills among children with and without jailed parents. Frontiers in Psychology, 7, 1-10.
DOI: 10.3389/fpsyg.2016.01095, Contribution: As L. Hindt's undergraduate research mentor, I provided guidance throughout all phases of the research process. I assisted L. Hindt in the development of the research protocol, recruitment of a comparison sample, data management

- and analysis, and interpretation. I provided significant support throughout the preparation of the manuscript, by providing thorough reviews on multiple drafts before submission.
13. *Schubert, E., *Duinick, M., Shlafer, R. (2016). Visiting mom: A pilot evaluation of a prison-based visiting program serving incarcerated mothers and their minor children. Journal of Offender Rehabilitation, 55(4), 213-234.
DOI: 10.1080/10509674.2016.1159641, Contribution: I served as the senior author on this paper. This paper developed out of a collaboration that I have with the Department of Corrections. I designed the study and oversaw the data collection. I mentored E. Casey (a graduate student) and M. Duinick (a medical student) on the data collection and qualitative analysis, and preparation of the manuscript. I reviewed all drafts of the manuscript and provided substantial feedback throughout the process.
